

English Writing: The Power of Reading.
Skellig by David Almond

- Describing character and setting
- Writing a narrative with a clear theme

Musee des Beaux Arts by W. H. Auden

- Writing a poem with a clear theme (leitmotif)

If Schools Could Fly

- Writing a class story about the week's residential at Abbey Home Farm.

Grammar and punctuation

- Extended noun phrases
- Adverbial phrases
- Tenses
- Sentence structure
- Prepositions

English Reading

Skills –

- Reading and discussing a range of texts
- Discussing fiction and non-fiction texts
- Discussing historical references
- Developing understanding the meaning of words in context
- Retrieving information and drawing inferences
- Predicting what might happen
- Summarising
- Developing understanding of a character

Computing

E-safety –

- Review aspects of online safety
- Learn about how to protect yourself online

Musicians:

Using software to develop digital music.

RE – Barking and Dagenham SACRE

Holy Books – Comparing different religious holy texts and retelling stories from them.

Who Cares – Looking at religious figures who have cared for others

PSHE – Jigsaw

Celebrating Difference and Being Me in My World

- Discussing individual identity,
- Acknowledging the positive attributes of themselves and others

Music – Specialist Teaching.

- Children will learn to play simple tunes on the glockenspiels and recorders with an increasing amount of accuracy.
- They will also learn to sing with clear diction, control of pitch and use lyrics to guide their expression.

Mathematics

Decimals – calculating with decimals

Measurement – converting between different metric units

Mean average – calculating the mean average

Percentages – converting fractions to percentages

Angles – Calculating angles in a straight line, at a point, and vertically opposite angles

Properties of triangles and 4-sided shapes –

Calculating missing angles in a triangle, classifying triangles and the properties of parallelograms, rhombuses and trapeziums

Geometrical construction – Drawing triangles and 4-sided shapes

Year 5 – Spring 2019-2020

Art and Design

- Designing and creating packaging for their own chocolate bar.
- Creating large A3 advertising posters for their own chocolate bar.

Our Character and Academics Approach

The curriculum at Eastbrook focusses on developing children's Character; Knowledge of the World and Key Skills.

Physical Education

Gymnastics

Demonstrate balance, poise and sequences on the trampoline.

Outdoor and Adventurous Activities

Working together as a team to find solutions to problems

Extra-Curricular

Curriculum Enrichment – Chocolate Museum and Tate Britain Gallery

Science – Investigative Science.

Turn it Up!

- Identify how sounds are made,
- making an association with vibration.
- Finding patterns between volume and strength of vibrations.
- Find patterns between the pitch of a sound and the object that produced it.
- Recognise that sounds get fainter the distance from the source.

Chocolate

- Identify that solids can change their form when heat is applied to them.
- Investigate the ingredients of chocolate and the benefits of eating chocolate.

IPC – Geography - Chocolate

- Locate where cocoa beans are grown in the world to where chocolate is eaten.

IPC – History
Chocolate

- Learn how the Maya used chocolate and the transition of chocolate to Europe
- How Europeans have adapted it's taste.

IPC – Technology- Chocolate

- Design and make chocolates

IPC – International-Chocolate

- Investigate what Fair Trade is and why it is so important for farmers in the less developed world.
- Look at the exploitation of cocoa workers in less developed countries