

READING CHALLENGE

Try to read as many of the following as possible:

A book that makes you laugh.	A book set in a country you've never been to.	A book that has a person's name in the title.	A book of less than 100 pages.
A book that you find challenging to read.	A biography or autobiography.	A book you choose because of the cover.	A book with a female heroine.
A historical or non-fiction history book.	A book recommended by someone else.	A book that has been made into a film.	A book based on a true story.
A book with a one-word title.	A graphic novel.	A book published in 2020.	A book with numbers in the title.

Can you complete a column, a line or the table?

You will earn Proud Points, as long as you write a brief review of the book (on lined paper or typed).

You need to include your name, the titles of the books you read, which categories they fit into, and your opinion (review) on each book. Be ready to discuss these books when you return to school in September! You need to give your reviews to your English teacher before 11 September to be entered into a prize draw.

"The more that you read, the more things you will know.

The more that you learn, the more places you'll go."

— Dr. Seuss